5. The tax deductibility of the payment or contribution;

B. Failing to disclose, if asked by any consumer, the percentage or amount of any payment or contribution that is or will be paid to any non-profit organization; and

C. Failing to disclose that a payment or contribution is not tax deductible, if that is the case.

V. - CONSUMER REDRESS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that judgment is hereby entered against Defendants, jointly and severally with Defendant Milford H. Balaban, in the amount of TWO MILLION ONE HUNDRED FIFTY-FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS ($2,154,000.00); Provided, however, that this judgment shall be suspended until further order of the Court pursuant to Paragraph VI of this Order, and shall not be recorded; and provided, further, that this judgment shall be subject to the conditions set forth in Paragraph VI of this Order.

VI. - RIGHT TO REOPEN

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. The Commission's agreement to this Order is expressly premised upon the financial condition of Defendants as represented in the "Financial Statement of Individual Defendant" and the "Financial Statement of Corporate Defendant" provided by Defendant Keith Calil to the Commission on November 1, 1998, both of which contained material information upon which the Commission relied in negotiating and consenting to this Order. If, at any time following entry of this Order, the Commission obtains information indicating that any of Defendants' representations in the financial statements concerning their assets, income, liabilities or net worth were fraudulent, materially misleading, inaccurate or incomplete, the Commission may, upon motion to the Court, request that this Order be reopened for the purpose of requiring payment of consumer redress by Defendants; Provided, however, that in all other respects this judgment shall remain in full force and effect, unless otherwise ordered by the Court; and Provided, further, that proceedings instituted under this Paragraph are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies as may be provided by law, including any other proceedings Plaintiff may initiate to enforce this Order. For purposes of this Paragraph, and any subsequent proceedings to enforce payment, including but not limited to a nondischargeability complaint filed in bankruptcy proceedings, Defendants waive any right to contest any of the allegations of the Complaint.

B. A finding by the Court of any material misrepresentation or omission to the Commission as to the financial condition of Defendants shall immediately make due and payable to the Commission from Defendants, the amount of TWO MILLION ONE HUNDRED FIFTY-FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS ($2,154,000.00) for consumer redress, and a Judgment shall issue against Defendants in that amount. The Court, from the stipulation of the parties, finds that this sum represents the amount received by Defendants and Defendant Milford H. Balaban from consumers and due to them as redress. The Commission, or any of its designees, may record and collect said judgment. The Commission will not seek payment of redress from Defendants except as provided in Paragraph VI., nor seek seek an amount in excess of said TWO MILLION ONE HUNDRED FIFTY-FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS ($2,154,000.00).
